

ECD Global Alliance Chat Summary

Chat on Dec 31, 2011

5 Attendees

- Greetings and Best Wishes for the New Year were exchanged between members. Particular greetings went to one member, whose wife has recently died due to ECD. He had got through the Christmas period, but it had been difficult for him. Some members did say that they thought it was best for him not to make any major decisions at this time.
- The member who is making his radio debut soon, announced that it was to be on Wednesday at 0745. He had not been aware that there was such a time! He also mentioned the problems that he has with his balance sometimes.
- The mother of a man with ECD, was asked whether her son wished to continue working. She said that he did want to carry on.
- The father of a patient came on briefly. He was off to the birthday party of his daughter who has ECD. He was delighted to be celebrating the birthday. Members wished her a Very Happy Birthday.