

Summary of ECD Global Alliance Internet Chat 01 Oct 2016

4 Attendees

- A VERY short and sweet Chat.
- A member logged on to say that he would not be on the Chat because he was going to "another 1st birthday party". What a life he leads, partying away!!
- While he was off enjoying himself another member wondered whether he wasn't "a little too old" to be attending a 1st birthday party!! He is a kindergarten teacher, so maybe this is one of the perks of the job!! Better than doing "diaper dooty". When he logged back on later everyone else had gone. He said that his wife schedules all of these events for him. He doesn't really have any choice!
